Extending Your Program (Students)

F-1 and J-1 students are given a specific period of time to complete their academic program requirements. To find this, please refer to the program end date that is printed on page 1 of your Form I-20 or DS-2019.

Students who are unable to meet the academic program requirements by the program end date must apply for a program extension before their Form I-20/DS-2019 program end date.

If the expiration date on the Form I-20/DS-2019 has passed, students must meet with an OIS advisor immediately, as they are considered out of status.
